General English

15 and 20 hours

Our General English classes embrace a modern communicative approach to provide an ideal learning environment for students of all backgrounds and language abilities. Lessons are delivered using a range of real-life English materials that integrate language [grammar, vocabulary] and skills [reading, writing, speaking, and listening], with a particular focus on communicative practice.

For students taking the 20 hour-programme, an additional session per week is included that focuses on culture, communication, and developing skills to prepare students for the 21st century, including problem-solving activities, self-care and mindfulness, and digital media workshops, among others.

The content of this programme includes a combination of language and culture-based skills lessons and activities, including:

- › Level assessment in advance to your class starting, for appropriate placement
- › Real-life, authentic English materials suited to your level
- › Varied language-learning activities to match different learning abilities

English

and Work Experience

Our English and Work Experience Programme combines an English language course, followed by an unpaid placement in a company in Ireland. This programme allows students to gain practical experience, while improving their English language fluency in a professional, English-speaking work environment.

Work Experience can be either entry level or professional work placements. Entry level positions do not require previous work experience, and include placements in a variety of sectors. Professional work placements can be requested in more specialised fields, and oftentimes require previous schooling and/or experience in the field requested.

An up-to-date CV/Resume and Cover Letter are required at the time of booking, both written in English.

The content of this programme includes a combination of language-based skills lessons and workshops related to everyday business tasks, as well as networking opportunities, including:

This package programme includes:

- › Minimum of 2 weeks of any standard IH course: General English, Business English, or Exam Preparation
- › Careful assessment of students' requirements and academic qualifications
- › Selection and placement in suitable Irish-based host company for a minimum of 2 weeks work experience
- › 3 one-to-one sessions with My Career Coach throughout your programme, to evaluate and reflect on your experience, and identify areas for future development

Need to Know

My English Coach

One of the challenges in today's fast-paced world is in finding time for personal and professional growth while balancing a hectic schedule. The My English Coach programme at IH Dublin provides working professionals and busy students with continuous, consistent support related to your daily English needs, whether professionally or academically.

My English Coach provides package programmes consisting of short bite-sized 30-minute English sessions with an IH qualified teacher to 'coach' your English progression. Packages available range from light weekly learning of 2 sessions per week to a more intensive 4 sessions/week. This programme can be booked in packages of 10 to 30 hours in total, with sessions split according to the student's needs.

Prior to starting lessons, students complete an entrance test to confirm their level of English as well as a full needs analysis to establish their strengths and weaknesses. The sessions with my English Coach are specifically fluid to adjust to professional or academic tasks the student might face in the workplace or classroom.

The My English Coach package includes:

- › Needs' Analysis and Level Test completed before your first coaching session
- › Flexible curriculum designed to respond to your daily English needs
- › Coaching sessions according to your timetable and schedule
- › Classes delivered online from the comfort of your home or office

One to one

and Executive Classes

Our One-to-One and Executive Courses are tailor-made to meet the exact requirements of an individual student. These courses are ideal for those who wish to concentrate on specific language skills or subjects, or for those whose preferences or schedule may not be suited to standard group lessons.

One to one and Executive courses can be booked on an hourly basis or in a package of 10 to 30 hours tuition in total.

Prior to starting lessons, students complete an entrance test to confirm their level of English as well as a full needs analysis to establish their perceived goals for their lessons. The curriculum is then specifically designed by our International House Dublin academic team to fit the student's needs and improve their English level in order to achieve their goal.

For a more comprehensive learning experience, students can also supplement their private lessons with an international House Dublin group programme, either in the morning or afternoon.

These programmes include:

- › Comprehensive Needs' Analysis and Level Test completed before your first lesson
- › Curriculum tailor-made to suit your content needs and language ability
- › Lessons scheduled according to your timetable
- › Classes available online or in person, either from the comfort of your home, or on site at IH Dublin

Young at Heart

Our Young at Heart Programme is a specially-designed programme for mature students wishing to refresh their English language skills, learn about Ireland’s rich history and culture, and mix with like-minded students of a similar age from all over the world.

Each day, learners will be introduced to key themes and topics in class at IH Dublin to prepare them for active, task-based “excursion lessons” led by their teacher to some of Dublin’s many sites of social, cultural and historical interest.

The Young at Heart package includes:

- › 20hr/week tuition combining in-class and excursion-based learning experiences
- › Curriculum specially geared for your age group and interests
- › Real-life, authentic English materials suited to your level
